Location

The Wyvern Business Park was built by developer William Davis of Loughborough as part of a comprehensive scheme which included the adjacent Wyvern Retail Park – home to many retail stores including Sainsbury's, Boots and Costco.

The Wyvern Business Park is an exclusive landscaped dedicated office park and extends to some 300,000 sq ft of offices built in phases, all roads and sewers are adopted and there is a 108 bedroomed Premier Inn hotel on site.

Occupiers include NatWest Bank, Assystem of France, Flat Iron and the Henry Schein Group, both of the USA, Motorpoint Head office, PDS Infrastructure Systems, Steris, a global healthcare equipment and services provider and a HM Government regional office

The Property

Oxford House was built in 2003 as part of Phase 5 Wyvern Business Park which includes two other office buildings: Exeter House and Durham House.

The three owners control a Management Company which maintains the landscaping and common areas.

Oxford House is well presented, two storey, semi-detached office building with double glazed windows and external doors set in powder coated aluminium frames, gas fired central heating and comfort cooling.
